

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A sand bag structure includes a main body including two sides and a bottom integrally combined with each other. Thus, the two sides and the bottom of the main body are integrally combined with each other, and each of 5 the two sides and the bottom of the main body has a determined width and thickness so as to enhance the support effect of the sand bag structure, thereby preventing the sand bag structure from being broken when containing the sand.